In Mr. Campbell's D.O. letter No. 356 dated 12th February 1914 in the accompanying file, His Highness's sanction to my proposals for the grant of cer-

1. Four clerks at Rs. 20 per mensem - Rs. 80 2. Three clerks at Rs. 15 -do- -" 45 Total - - - Rs. 125 tain local allowances to my personal staff and the employment of a Probationary Assistant Commissioner or a junior Assistant Commissioner for work in the Dewan's Office, was communicated to me.

2. In my submission note No. 2160 of the 11th idem, I had requested that the allowances in question might be sanctioned for one year to begin with and expressed the hope that, by decentralization of responsibilities and duties at head quarters, it might be possible to reduce work. As regards the appointment of an additional officer, I had stated that, if after a year I found an officer of this class superfluous, I would report and dispense with his services also.

3. The term of one year for which the arrangements in question were sanctioned will expire by the 12th instant. It has however been found by experience that the grant of allowances has greatly encouraged work, the officials concerned having ungrudgingly worked out of office hours also. Besides, work in almost all departments has continued to grow. The scheme of decentralization of responsibilities and duties at head quarters has been carried out in part and is being pursued further. It will, however, take some time before any appreciable reduction of routine work can be noticed. Moreover, the large number of special schemes which have been sanctioned during the year require careful watching for some time and this important work also has added appreciably to the ordinary work of the office.

4. As regards the additional officer, His Highness had been pleased to permit the employment of one of the Probationary Assistant Commissioners or a junior Assistant Commissioner. I have adopted the less costly course of employing one of the Probationary Assistant Commissioners for whom no acting arrangements at other places are required.

5. In these circumstances, I beg to recommend that the arrangements sanctioned by His Highness last year may be graciously allowed to be continued for about a year more i.e., till the 31st March 1916.
